DURON KOON FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Writes Card Below Appealing to The Voters of Crittenden and Livingston Counties

Since making my announcement for representative of Crittenden and Livingston Counties the United States has been forced by the Imperial German government to become actively engaged in the greatest war the world has ever known thereby making it the duty of each and every American citizen to do something to aid the government in this great crisis. This with my health has rendered it impossible for me to meet with each voter, as I had hoped to do, and discuss with you the great questions to come before the next general assembly.

I therefore take this method of expressing my views and the principals for which I shall stand if nominated and elected as your representative.

I favor and will vote for the submission to a vote of the people, of a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacturing and sale of intoxicating liquors in Ky.

I shall consider it my duty to be present at all times throughout the session, vote for and give my support to all questions coming before the house. I think on behalf of the people and the making of a greater Kentucky and to vote against and oppose all questions I deem detrimental to the people, as there are crimes of omission the same as commission.

While determining how to vote upon the above named principals I shall consider it my duty to be governed by the will of the people on all questions upon which I have the means of knowing what their will is, and upon all others I shall do what my own judgement and own conscience teaches me will best advance their interests and the making of a greater Kentucky.

If I am nominated and elected representative I shall be free from all entanglements and not an appointee or slave of any faction, organization or machine, free to fight for the rights of the people.

Upon these principles I ask your consideration and solicit your vote and influence.

Respectfully submitted,

Duron Koon.

ASKS SUPPORT OF VOTERS

James L. F. Paris Asks Republicans to Nominate Him For School Superintendent

There are as yet many voters in the county whom I have not had the pleasure of seeing personally, and I am sending you this invitation to help me to secure the nomination for Superintendent of Crittenden county schools.

This is the first time for me to ask for an office of any kind, and since making my announcement, so many have shown an interest in my success, I feel that I should express to you my gratitude. From portions of the county which I have not as yet had time to visit I hear encouraging reports of many friends who expect to help me win. I am grateful for every kind word or thought, and if elected will try to treat all in such a way that you shall not regret your choice.

I promise, if elected, to devote my time to the work, to stay in the office on official days, and other days when not looking after school interests in other places.

I expect to visit every district before the school begins each year, to see what is needed, that everything may, as far as possible, be in readiness before the schools starts, and to visit every school while in session as much as one time, or oftener if needful, and to help the parents and teachers and boys and girls in any way that I can to secure good schools.

I have entered the race with good faith in you, believing that I have your welfare at heart, for I ask your help, not alone that I may have a place, but that I may be in a sphere where I may give my life and efforts in securing for the people of my county more intelligent, happy and righteous living.

I have prepared myself for the duties of the office before asking for it, and I promise you efficient service from the beginning. All I ask is a trial, for I believe I can work agreeably with you, that together we may strive for greater things than we have seen. I promise, if elected, that every person and every district in Crittenden county shall have my attention, for it shall be my great desire and endeavor to fill the office with credit to myself and to those who elect me.

Yours for better schools,
James L. F. Paris

Alex Jones For Jailer.

Having become a candidate for the office of Jailer of Crittenden County and finding that I will not be able to see all the voters of the County between now and the Primary election, which I would like very much to do, I wish to say to the Democrats, of this county that I have always supported the party nominees, with out fail, because I believe in the principles of the Democratic party and upon my democracy and ability, to make you a good jailer I submit my claims. I trust you will give my claims due consideration and if nominated I will do all in my power, legitimately, to carry the banner to success.

Hoping for your support in the primary I am yours, missed that masterpiece, you have certainly heard about it, and of course you know about the wonderful "giant in that great film. His work was so unusual that he became the star of the greatest of all photoplays, even though the part was not originally considered a star part.

And now you can see this "wonder man again. No, he is not a colored giant from Africa—he is a white gentleman.

"Maciste" was his name in "Cabiria" and now and forevermore he will probably be known as "Maciste". The new feature film in which this "super-man" has been starred, was written especially for him and it is a wonder work of amazing acts, tantalizing thrills and stirring struggles. Maciste fights with scores of men and seems to enjoy the battles.

The most remarkable thing about this very unusual film is the fact that it is both comedy and tense exciting drama. There is an element of mystery which holds and and the action moves with a speed that will bring you to the edge of your seat.

ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION

L. E. Guess Wants to be County
Clerk of Crittenden Again,
Popular Man.

To the voters of Crittenden County.

In my race for County Court Clerk, I had hoped to be able to leave the office and see in person all of the voters of the county in order to present my claims, but I find that if I perform the duties of the office and render the service that the people elected me to do, and also do the additional work which these war conditions have imposed upon the office, it will be impossible for me to be out of the office for any considerable length of time.

As you are aware, the nation is in the midst of a terrible war, and under recent Act of Congress the nation is enlisting and equipping a vast army of men for service, and every county clerk's office in the union has been selected as a vital part of the machinery for enlisting that army. In obedience to the call of the nation, I have been almost constantly engaged in making out enlistment cards and copying them, for which I receive no pay, and it will probably take another month to finish. Beside this, I am required, during this month, as commissioner, to make settlements with the Sheriff and County Treasurer. At the same time I must see to the preparation of the ballots and the proper working of all of the election machinery for the coming primary. I mention these facts so that the voters may see that there never was a time when the duties of the clerk's office were greater, and that I cannot very well make a house to house canvass of the county, and at the same time, serve the people as they have a right to expect me to do. As long as I am clerk I shall feel that my first duty is to the people, and that the work of the office must be done even to the sacrifice of my personal interests.

I am receiving most encouraging reports from all parts of the county and I am mighty grateful for the interest which these reports indicate that my friends are manifesting in my behalf.

In making this explanation, I desire to renew my promise that if reelected, I shall discharge the duties of my office, and serve every citizen of the county, regardless of condition or politics and I believe that my past service has qualified me to render you still even better service than I have been able to do heretofore. On this pledge, I solicit your support in the coming primary election.

Your friend,
L. E. Guess.

In Memoriam

Hardon C. Hill was born March 25 1840 in Crittenden County Kentucky. He was married to Mary Jane Jacob February 16 1866 and to this union six sons were born, two of whom, Thomas and Hayes, are dead. Four sons survive, Frank, Harvey and Will, of Zilla and Nute of North Yakima.

Mr. Hill was a member of Company E, 48th Illinois regiment and served through the civil war.

With his family he came to Tacoma, Washington, in 1887 and in February, 1888, to Yakima county, where he resided until the time of his death, June 20, 1917.

Soon after he returned from the war he became a member of the Presbyterian church and has ever stood for the best things in his community.

THE AERO MAP.

The aviator and his camera have created a new kind of geography. The birds-eye view, with its entirely imaginary authenticity, has been supplanted by the lens that, left alone, tells the lie nor relates any imaginative detail, says Cincinnati Times-Star. Photographs taken by the aviators of the trenches along the Somme, for instance, are the verities of the furrowed and burrowed landscape depicted. But the aviator and his camera have now entered a new department of their neo-geography. The aero lens, if we may call it such, has turned its optic from dizzy heights upon just plain real estate that some dealer has offered for sale. The result is that an advertisement of a country house, with its outbuildings situated among the surrounding 23 acres, appears in a current magazine, accompanied by an aviator's eye view of the demesne. Every detail is revealed with precision and with a verisimilitude that no map or plan could convey. The future of aero geography should be assured. Within a few years every surveyor may be forced to supplement his level and line with an airplane and a camera to meet the more modern demands of his patrons.

The need of the hour is patriotism, not selfishness; loyalty, not contemplation of personal advantage; activity, not apathy and indifference. The hour contains the supreme test of the American people—not only a test of their fighting qualities but also of their economic system; not only of their bravery on the fighting line, but on the farms, in the mines, in the mills and factories, and in the shipyards of the country—a bravery which will face any condition that may arise, and turn it to the advantage of the nation. This is the need of the hour. Let us all help to supply this need. And we will supply it if we be worthy of the name of "American" people.

The report that Professor Weldner, a Bavarian agricultural expert, has told the Germans to eat grass will remind Bible readers of the story of Nebuchadnezzar. But the professor has no notion of advising his countrymen to forsake their houses for the fields and compete with the lowing herds. The kinds of grass he has in mind are red clover and alfalfa, both of which, it is declared, can be converted into palatable dishes. However, the staple food supply of Germany must be running low, or there would not be so much consideration for proposals of unusual substitutes.

As a reward for the loyalty and valuable service of the women of Great Britain during the war, a bill has been introduced to give them the right of suffrage. But the voting age is fixed at thirty years. This, however, is not the minimum limit of the working age, so the government has decidedly the best of the bargain.

As a conquering hero the crown prince, who was to win glory and renown out of the capture of Verdun, is one of the most dismal failures of the war. What he has succeeded in doing is to furnish valuable argument for the establishment of the suggested republic.

A man in California forced at the point of a pistol by an angry cook to eat a steak on which he had cast aspersions came back later and shot the cook. The food stringency out there evidently bars the higher criticism.

Somebody is always taking the romance out of life. Women are not to knit socks or sew shirts for soldiers in this war, as they do those things better by machinery now.

A man is utterly indifferent about other men believing his fish lies, but when he arrives at home at 2 a. m. he is prayerfully anxious that the lie he tells his wife be credited.

Evidently Turkey has a good hunch at last. Its agents are working for settlement terms that will not cause its extinction.

Maybe it is just a coincidence, but the U-boat does not seem to do as well as it did before Uncle Sam got on the job.

While on the subject of setting the clock ahead an hour, can it be possible the weather man has set it back a month?

The squirrel is about the only sort of food hoarder that will be tolerated in this country for some time to come.

Russia's new minister of justice, M. Nikitine, ought to make a decided hit with the moujiks in the trenches.

The time to talk about that submarine defense is after it has successfully stopped submarine raids.

American soldiers and sailors will win the war for world freedom.

The country expects every purse to do its duty.

Town swept away When Big Dam Breaks

Baker, Ore., June 29—Reports from Harnes say the town of Rock Creek practically was swept away yesterday when a 54 foot dam at the flooded Killamacue Lake, 15 miles west of Harnes gave way.

Almost every building in the town is said to have been destroyed. It is not known whether there has been any loss of life, as communication is cut off.

MARRIAGES

Altogether fair and lovely was the wedding of Miss Addie Lee Dean and Mr. John Tyler Watts, which was solemnized on Tuesday afternoon, June 26th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry Dean, on Eighth and Quintard avenue.

Jas. H. Orme.

Mr. Chester Watts, of Louisville, was his brother's best man.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Ida Kline sang delightfully "Tell Her I Love Her So." Miss Watt's selection was De Ardelot's "Because," rendered charmingly.

Miss Hasseltine Caudle, one of the bride's young pupils, played the piano accompaniment and wedding marches.

Those assisting at the wedding and reception were. At the front door, Mrs. Gordon Jones, inner door, Misses Emily Norwood and Bessie Coleman, at foot of stairs, Misses Ella Culbertson and Elizabeth Cater, head of stairs, Miss Lois Willis, at punch bowl, Misses Frances Coleman and Ethel Houser, assisted by Miss Augusta O'Bryant Mrs. Stephen Thompson, Mrs. Witherspoon and Mrs. George Leyden assisting in the front hall.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tyler Watts, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dean, Miss Mary Elizabeth Watts, Miss Virginia McClure, Mr. Chester Watts, Miss Neva Whiteside, Dr. and Mrs. Hodges, at the dining room door, Miss Rosa Bowie in the dining room, Misses Petrus, Ida Kline, Hasseltine Caudle, Pauline Witherspoon, Virginia Ordway, Caroline O'Bryant, Dorothy Quinn, Mrs. L. A. Hussey and Mrs. S. A. Russell, in the parlor, Mrs. John B. Knox and Mrs. Joseph E. Aderhold.

A delightful ice course and heart shaped cake were served. The dining room was decorated in ferns, white sweet peas, hydrangeas and clematis. The table was beautiful in its appointments, with lace cover, dainty glass baskets, filled with white peas, tied with big tulle bows extending to the chandelier, from which was suspended a large basket filled with white sweet peas. The bride's cake was in the center, from which ribbon streamers extended. The bridesmaids and young friends of the bride drew these ribbons for the ring, wishbone and thimble. Miss McClure drew the wedding ring, Miss Emily Norwood the thimble, Miss Augusta O'Bryant the wishbone, Miss Caroline O'Bryant the dime. The cake was cut by the bride and those who assisted enjoyed it.

The bride and groom left at 8:45 for Birmingham and other points, after which they will go to Louisville for a visit to the groom's parents, before going to Youngstown, Ohio, where Mr. Watts has a splendid position with the Youngstown Sheet Metal and Tube Company.

They were remembered by many beautiful gifts from hosts of friends here and in many states.

One of the prettiest of the many beautiful affairs given in honor of Miss Addie Lee Dean and Mr. J. Taylor Watts was the musicale given by Mrs. Joseph Aderhold Monday evening, following the rehearsal at the Dean home.

Miss Watts, is a sister of the groom possesses a superb soprano voice and graciously delighted the guests with a lovely group of songs. Particularly beautiful was "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling" when Mr. Chester Watts accompanied her with a violin obligato.

Mr. Watts and his brother are talented violinists and gave several beautiful selections.

Miss Ida Kline, one of Anniston's favorite singers, sang two exquisite numbers. Joseph Aderhold, Jr., who is now making his home in Birmingham, sang "Entreaty" so well suited to his rich baritone voice.

Miss Hasseltine Caudle gave two instrumental numbers and Mr. Harry Ayers gave two Chinese love songs. Miss Harriet Glover, who is ever generous with her gift of music, was the lovely accompanist for the evening.

White hydrangeas were used in decorating the reception hall, parlors and dining room.

Only the wedding party and a few of the hostess' young friends were present, including Misses Dean, Watts, McClure of Kentucky, Neva Whiteside, Kline, Brice; Miss Whitesides, a sister of Mrs. W. P. Brunson, Misses Alice Weatherly, Hattie Glover, Gladys Harwell, Hasseltine Caudle, Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Hodges and Mr. and Mrs. Dean, Messrs Harry Ayers, Jimmie Tarleton, J. Tyler Watts, Chester Watts, Dr. Thomas Smith, Dr. Sellers Underwood and Joseph Aderhold, Jr. The Anniston Evening Star.

Heat Spots.

The white spots caused by hot dishes can be removed by rubbing fresh lard on them. The lard should be rubbed in with the fingers. If the spots are very bad it will be necessary to leave the lard on a few hours. It is then rubbed off with a soft cloth. The lard will not injure the finish of the table. A finely polished shining table, otherwise ruined by hot dishes, can be thus reclaimed.

BLACKFORD

This is the month of July and we have already had a number of warm days, yet from the signs of the zodiac the probabilities are favorable for warmer days during the month.

The blessed rain has fallen at last and there will be potatoes, corn and various other things made in this section provided the season continues favorable.

Our friends, W. T. Perry and L. E. Ringo, who had the honor to visit Washington City, recently, have returned and appear to be as happy as a "June-bug" in a "dog-fennel" patch.

E. H. Brinkley and family, who resided at Sturgis for a number months, have moved back to this place. We are glad to have our old neighbors with us again.

T. M. Clark, whose health has been rather on the decline for some time, has gone to Dawson Springs where he contemplates residing for awhile, so that he may test the virtue of the Dawson water.

S. E. DeHaven, who has been teaching school at Durham, N. C., is spending his vacation with his father, C. W. DeHaven, of near here.

W. H. Reynolds and daughter, Miss Edith, of near Repton, and Mrs. Besse Reynolds, of Paducah, were at the Radcliff last week on business and while here paid Dr. J. R. Reynolds a pleasant call.

Rev. J. R. King and W. T. Pickens are digging a well for Parson King Although a Presbyterian, the preacher claims that he wants more water.

Since our last communication death has invaded the home of our townsman, Malan Crowell, and claimed two victims. On June 20th, the infant daughter, Margaret Helen, died of Infantile Atrophy; and on June 23rd, his wife, Hattie Davis Crowell, died of Edema. She had been in failing health for a number of months.

The members of Princeton Commandery No. 35, from this immediate section, who attended the memorial services at the grave of Sir Knight, Peter Cartwright Stephens, at Repton, Crittenden county, Ky., on last Sunday were Robert F. Bishop and John L. Reynolds.

Suprise Party To

Miss Mary Wilson

On last Friday night quite a large number of the young friends of Miss Mary Wilson motored to the Wilson home to help Miss Mary celebrate her sixteenth birthday. It was a fine moonlight night and the young people played many games on the beautiful lawn.

The surprise party brought boxes laden with good things to eat which were served in the dining room at 10:30. The young people then started for their homes after wishing Miss Mary many more happy birthdays.

Nana Cobb, news.

Reasons!

Why you should use Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles, have been shown in thousands of letters from actual users of this medicine, who speak from personal experience. If the results obtained by other women for so many years have been so uniformly good, why not give Cardui a trial?

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Mary J. Irvin, of Cullen, Va., writes: "About 11 years ago, I suffered untold misery with female trouble, bearing-down pains, headache, numbness... I would go for three weeks almost bent double... My husband went to Dr. for Cardui... After taking about two bottles I began going around and when I took three bottles I could do all my work." E-80

How Much the Little Heroes Need Our Help!

It is less theatrical to give a bowl of soup to a hungry, frightened little child than to stanch the wound of a fallen soldier in the fighting line, but the American Red Cross has undertaken to care for the suffering civilians in war-torn Europe as well as to nurse the wounded fighters. These little ones are just as heroic, in their way, as any man who charges the German guns. And the children are often wounded, too.

Here is an extract from a letter written by Mrs. Marian Bonnell Davis, who was for six months a volunteer worker in France, among those non-combatants who are almost hourly in danger from German guns and bombs: "Because so many bombs fall on the town of Nancy, and because the place is sometimes bombarded, the children all know that on a certain signal they must run into the cellar of the nearest house marked with the great red cross. There, perhaps, they will have protection."

"There are children in the hospitals, victims of the bombs. There is one little girl, both legs taken off by a German bomb, hugging tight her dolly, with never a smile on her grave face. "There are two little boys who also suffered amputations because of the bombs. They begged to be allowed to lie in the hospital ward with the wounded soldiers, and when the soldiers heard of the request they smiled and said 'blessed' (It is well.) And now the little fellows are inordinately proud of the mutilations that permit them to lie in the ward of crippled soldiers."

AS WE GROW OLD

The Kidneys Should Receive Help. Marion People Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

The constant strain of life is hard on the kidneys, and in later years the kidneys call for help. Old backs often ache, day in, day out; urinary ills frequently add their weight of woe. Give the help the kidneys need. Aid the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills.

Marion people endorse this remedy. F. C. Guess, E. Depot St., Marion, says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills a splendid remedy for kidney weakness. For a long time I have been subject to backaches and at these times, my back is stiff and sore. The kidney secretions pass too frequently so that I can hardly get any sleep at night. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I get at Haynes & Taylor's drug store, never fail to give me relief and I wouldn't be without them. I think they are a fine medicine for old people."

Price 50 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Guess used. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Kavanaugh Conference Camp, to be held July 30 August 6, under the direction of the Missionary Societies of the M. E. C. S. of the Louisville and Kentucky Conference, will be one of the best places for one to spend vacation or a week of camp life. Besides opportunities for rest and recreation, one can get instruction, in Bible study, Mission study, Technical instruction, and first aid instruction, and inspiration. One of the happiest features of the camp life is the social. Here one can meet and make friends with people from all over the State. All of this costs only $75 for board and room. The registration fee, which must be sent to Miss Helen McCandless, 1141 S. Floyd St. Louisville, Ky. by July 15, is one dollar. By means do not fail to attend Kavanaugh Camp, Crestwood, Ky. William Daniel Shaw.

There has recently passed from among us one of nature's noblemen, a man marked among his fellows by those qualities of head and heart that distinguish the southern gentleman. A man of the type of William Daniel Shaw is not the product of one generation. Oliver Wendell Holmes was asked the proper time to begin to train a child, and he replied: "A hundred years before he is born." The training does begin then. The early settlers of Davidson county, Tennessee, were from the leading families of Virginia and Carolinas. The great grandparents of W. D. Shaw were among those early settlers. In 1798 James and Anna Shaw removed to Caldwell county, Kentucky, and settled near Crider. There were four sons and four daughters in this family. The daughters all married, and in this way the Shaws are closely related to the Blacks, Dodds, Stevensons and Phillips, some of the best families of western Kentucky. Only one of the sons, William, ever married, and his son, J. W. Shaw, married Mrs. Polly Stuart Stevenson (nee Phillips). To them were born three sons and two daughters. William Daniel Shaw was the only one of the sons to grow to manhood. The two daughters still live, Mrs. Sarah Ann Nunn, at Sullivan, Ky., and Mrs. Margaret Evalina McConnell, of Marion, Ky.

W. D. Shaw was born in Caldwell county, Kentucky, Dec. 31, 1842, and died at Temple, Tex., June 3, 1917.

In 1869 Mr. Shaw came to Texas, and in Sept. 1873, was married to Mrs. Sarah Margaret

WHAT IS LAX-FOS

LAX-FOS IS AN IMPROVED CASCARA
A DIGESTIVE LAXATIVE
CATHARTIC AND LIVER TONIC

LAX-FOS is not a Secret or Patent Medicine but is composed of the following old-fashioned roots and herbs:

CASCARA BARK
BLUE FLAG ROOT
RHUBARB ROOT
BLACK ROOT
MAY APPLE ROOT
SENNA LEAVES AND PEPSIN

In LAX-FOS the CASCARA is improved by the addition of these digestive ingredients making it better than ordinary CASCARA, and thus the combination acts not only as a stimulating laxative and cathartic but also as a digestive and liver tonic. Syrup laxatives are weak, but LAX-FOS combines strength with palatable, aromatic taste and does not gripe or disturb the stomach. One bottle will prove LAX-FOS is invaluable for Constipation, Indigestion or Torpid Liver. Price 50c.

and taken prisoner, being confined at Louisville, Ky., and at Camp Chase, Ohio. He was exchanged after some months, and again entered the army, March, 1864, he was taken prisoner again, and was released just in time for the surrender. The quality of his manhood is indicated by the fact that his own section of Kentucky was divided in its allegiance, but he, a Confederate soldier, retained the friendship of many who espoused the union cause.

He loved the Confederate soldier, and his associations with the men who wore the gray made up many of the happy days of his later life. He was honored by his comrades, being adjutant of his camp, the Granbury camp, No. 1323, being adjutant of the camp every year but one since he came here.

He was an enthusiastic Mason. He became a Master Mason in 1871, at Newport, Tex., in the Newport lodge, No. 228; was a charter member of Joe Warner Lodge, No. 553, Trinity, Tex., 1882; uniting with the lodge at Temple soon after coming here. He was past high priest and past thrice illustrious master of the Temple council, No. 137, Royal and Select Masters. He held certificate in the council degrees for the past six years. The Masonic lodge was a well loved meeting place with his friends and fellow Masons. The principles of Masonry appealed to him strongly, and he rejoiced in the good fellowship it afforded him. He was a Christian man, and united with the Grace Presbyterian church, March 18, 1917. He sometimes talked about the church and his desire to unite with it, but expressed his sense of unworthiness. When he understood that it was the grace of God that made us fit for fellowship in the Father's house, he declared with joy that he had surrendered his life to Jesus, had gone to Him with his sins, and believed He had heard his prayer for life and salvation.

Early in his life his parents settled near Bethlehem church, one of the old Cumberland Presbyterian churches, famous because of its noble ministry and the great and good men who were members there. The old church had many great ministers. Dr. Milton Bird lived there and wrought gloriously for the Master. Mr. Shaw often spoke of Dr. Bird and Bethlehem church. Near there was the Old Piny campground, famous in the early religious history of western Kentucky. Many are the saints that bless the old Owensville, Ind July 3--(special) --A variety of Irish potato, the bloom of which went to seed, was grown by Sam Montgomery west of town. On the vine where the bloom appears are many round pods containing innumerable seed which when matured, are worth $60 an ounce. Mr. Montgomery said.

Other potato growers report having found seed pods on their potato vines. The man put small paper sacks over the pods in order to save the seed from the birds there in event the pods burst.

Trunk Full of Bombs

at German Embassy

Christiana, Norway, June 30. —Discovery of the German plot to destroy Norwegian steamers by explosives, unearthed late last week, has appalled the whole nation. The newspapers demand publication of all the facts in the case and of steps which are being taken to bring the matter to the attention of the German government.

In all, a ton of explosives has been discovered, concealed in artificial lumps of coal which, presumably were to be placed in ship's bunkers and in bombs filled with the most ingenious mechanism. It has developed that a trunk full of explosives was brought to Christiana in February by a courier of the German foreign officer, whose official seal was on the trunk. The trunk was addressed to the German embassy here and according to international usage, it was admitted without examination.

After the discovery of the explosives the German embassy declared the trunk was destined for Finland, but no explanation was given as to why it remained here so long.

The explosives were found in all manner of articles, including glass vials fountain pens, pencils, cigarette and tobacco.

Only the tortures of the medieval rack are comparable to the agonies which many women suffer through the peculiar weaknesses and diseases of their delicate, feminine structure. They have found in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the one unfailing remedy which heals feminine weaknesses at their very source. This marvelous "Prescription" restores absolute health to the internal organism; stops ulcerated conditions, gives elastic strength to the supporting ligaments, vitality to the nerve centers, and complete womanly vigor to the entire constitution.

It is the perfect fortifier and regulator at every critical period from the time when they merge into womanhood until the "change of life." It is the one medicine which makes motherhood safe and almost free from pain.

KENTUCKY TESTIMONY.

Louisville, Ky.—"I have been so well satisfied with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets that I am more than glad to recommend them. They have been a family 'stand-by' for fifteen years. My husband cures severe headaches with them. I have used them myself for the purpose advertised and they are wholly reliable, pleasant and efficient. I have given them to all my four children and the results have been for their benefit in every way."—Mrs. Joe RAYMOND, 311 N. 8th St.

How Much the Little Heroes Need Our Help!

It is less theatrical to give a bowl of soup to a hungry, frightened little child than to stanch the wound of a fallen soldier in the fighting line, but the American Red Cross has undertaken to care for the suffering civilians in war-torn Europe as well as to nurse the wounded fighters. These little ones are just as heroic in their way, as any man who charges the German guns. And the children are often wounded, too.

Here is an extract from a letter written by Mrs. Marian Bonsall Davis, who was for six months a volunteer worker in France, among those non-combatants who are almost hourly in danger from German guns and bombs:

"Because so many bombs fall on the town of Nancy, and because the place is sometimes bombarded, the children all know that on a certain signal they must run into the cellar of the nearest house marked with the great red cross. There, perhaps, they will have protection."

"There are children in the hospitals, victims of the bombs. There is one little girl, both legs taken off by a German bomb, hugging tight her dolly, with never a smile on her grave face."

"There are two little boys who also suffered amputations because of the bombs. They begged to be allowed to lie in the hospital ward with the wounded soldiers, and when the soldiers heard of the request they smiled and said 'bien!' (It is well.) And now the little fellows are inordinately proud of the mutilations that permit them to lie in the ward of crippled soldiers, the equals in rank of the heroes of battle."

"Then there are the little ones in the refugee colonies. If you have helped with your money, with service, to carry the world-burden, you can look into their eyes; otherwise you turn your head when they gaze at you with child wisdom."

"These little ones are very like other children except in one thing—no horrible thing can ever surprise them. Their baby eyes have looked upon the unspeakable. They have gazed on violence and wrath in their most perverted forms, have seen their grandparents hunted and driven, their mothers hunted down. They are too young to know that these things are not a common part of life. And they are so much older than you in knowledge of violence and suffering and terror, yet because you are so big, and seem to them wise, they look up to you in child appeal."

"When you have seen that from these little ones, you have touched the war; and when you have touched the war, there is only one kind of relief possible to you—and that is to help. There is a very definite, practical way to help—the American Red Cross. Every cent you give will go further than you ever would believe that a cent could go. A cent will give a bowl of soup to a hungry, frightened child."

O'CONNOR, RED CROSS CHASER OF CYCLONES

The world is full of rainbow chasers, but the one and only official cyclone chaser is John J. O'Connor, director of the central division of the American Red Cross, with headquarters at Chicago. The Red Cross Magazine has graphically told how he personally administered relief at Newcastle and New Albany, Ind., when those cities were wrecked by storms. But it is not generally known that, beginning with the disaster at Mattoon and Charleston, where 90 lives were lost, Mr. O'Connor directed relief work in 55 communities scattered over seven states! Not only did he get calls for help from several of the nine states then in his division, but Washington ordered him to take over the cyclone relief work in Kansas and Oklahoma, which ordinarily are administered from Denver.

MAKE YOUR CHOICE—IT'S RED CROSS OR IRON CROSS

One of the most striking phrases expressive of the duty of every American to uphold the Red Cross is that of J. Roe Purchase, editor of a trade paper in Chicago. Here is what he tells his readers:

"You'd better bear the Red Cross burden now than bear the Iron Cross burden all the rest of your life."

Never was spoken a truer word. The first appeal of the Red Cross was for $100,000,000, which means about $1 per capita. This fund is for the care of sick and wounded soldiers, and the destitute in war-desolated lands.

But when the German heel is stamped down upon a land—Belgium, Serbia, Poland, Roumania, France—as far as the crown prince has been able to go—there is no such thing as a contribution; it is confiscation. Why, more money has been ravished from the one city of Brussels than the Red Cross asked for its whole first year campaign. Millions of dollars in "fines" are taken from every Belgian city every month. Only a few weeks ago a fine of millions was imposed on Brussels because a newspaper published by Belgians in England had printed a story of German savagery.

AS WE GROW OLD

The Kidneys Should Receive Help.

Marion People Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

The constant strain of life is hard on the kidneys, and in later years the kidneys call for help. Old backs often ache, day in, day out; urinary ills frequently add their weight of woe. Give the help the kidneys need. Aid the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills.

Marion people endorse this remedy. T. C. Guess, E. Depot St., Marion, says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills a splendid remedy for kidney weakness. For a long time I have been subject to backaches and at these times, my back is stiff and sore. The kidney secretions pass too frequently so that I can hardly get any sleep at night. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I get at Haynes & Taylor's drug store, never fail to give me relief and I wouldn't be without them. I think they are a fine medicine for old people."

DOG'S DOUBLE NATURE.

The dog's two-sided nature makes him a vexatious problem. He is sufficiently civilized to enjoy the companionship of man and to return with devotion, affection and faithfulness his master's care. He is obedient and mild-mannered when he is at his best, but he is not always at his best, says Hartford Courant. He is a wolf as well as a dog and his wolf nature is sometimes predominant. Some dogs are nearly all wolf, while others are sometimes doglike and sometimes wolflike. The dog is often man's faithful friend, and he is sometimes the enemy of man and of man's other animals. Many dog lovers and dog owners emphasize the dog's good qualities and ignore his susceptibility to the call of the wild, but any fair-minded person must admit that he can be a sad nuisance as well as a responsive and affectionate companion. What is to be done with such a perverse and yet attractive animal?

There is a far greater variety of uses for wood products than the public realizes, and at the present time the discovery of new and interesting applications is progressing rapidly, through the efforts of investigators, many of whom are employed by our government. Powder for munitions or blasting, disinfectants for protection against disease and artificial silk for clothing are among the products obtained from wood in whole or in part, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The acetone used as a solvent in making nitrocellulose powders is derived from acetic acid, a product of hardwood distillation. Black walnut is so much in demand for gunstocks that other woods, especially birch, are being substituted. It is stated on good authority that in Europe there is a shortage of willow for making wooden legs. The forest products laboratory at Madison has conducted extensive experiments in the production of grain, or ethyl alcohol from wood, and has had some success in raising the yield and lowering the cost of production. If this process can be put on a commercial basis it will make available for profitable use millions of tons of sawdust now wasted.

Fifty society women of New York have determined to set an example against extravagance by putting themselves on voluntary war rations, says Baltimore American. They will have but three courses for dinner and but two for luncheon. How to imitate this self-sacrifice will be a puzzle to the somewhat large class who consider themselves fortunate in having one good course for either meal.

We see by one of the esteemed advertisements that the girls' new overalls are so roomy that they slip on easily over a skirt, so we don't suppose there's much danger that the hired man will create an embarrassing situation by mistaking the sex of the little young stranger working beside him and asking her for a chew of tobacco.

One of our exchanges says that the private soldiers of the United States will form a grand social organization after the war. Such a thing ought to be discouraged. A body so exclusive would afford the basis of a new aristocracy, and this is democracy's day.

Spain is facing a paper famine. They might apply to the German chancellor to let them have any despised scraps of paper, of which, from his own intimation, the empire has a ready supply in its various treaties.

Some prophet predicts that the war will last for 50 years. In that event science will succeed in devising a way for human beings to live on the atmosphere like air plants.

In London people are fined for wasting labor and money in overdecorating buildings. The "simple life" is being taken with a seriousness beyond the hopes of its advocates.

The department of agriculture recommends that we become a nation of "Jack Spratts." But has the department ever seen a real "Jack Spratt" in action?

Any successful strike by the coal miners from now on can be engineered only through the instrumentality of a pick.

It isn't going to be difficult for many young Americans to decide, this year, where they will spend their vacation.

Still, the ultimate result of Germany's fifty years of preparation will be about 200 years of recuperation.

It does no good to complain about the weather, but it seems to relieve the strain a little, anyway.

Liquid fire, as a weapon of offense, is what very properly might be termed a burning shame.

JOHN A. MOORE FOR CO. ATTORNEY

Takes This Method of Making Known to Crittenden County People His Announcement

To the Republican Voters of Crittenden County.

I take this method of announcing my self as a candidate for the republican nomination for the office of County Attorney.

For several months I have been urged by republicans from every section of the county to make this race, but have hesitated to do so, for the reason that my time is so occupied that it will be impossible for me to make a canvass of the county in order to secure the nomination.

In fact the salary of the office does not justify a person qualified to fill it, in making two canvasses of the county in order to secure the office. But if I was so situated that I could make a close canvass of the county, it would be a pleasure to me to see and talk to every republican in the county and discuss with them the duties of the county attorney. But this is impossible, as I have a crop of corn, tobacco and hay that must have my attention for the next two or three weeks and this renders it impossible for me to solicit personally the votes of the people; my name will appear upon the republican ballot in the primary election as a candidate for this office and if I am given the nomination I will make every honorable effort within my power to win in the final election.

In soliciting your vote in this matter, I refer you to my record as a practicing lawyer for the past 22 years; during all these years you have been in and around our courts and know the extent and success of my practice. Our court dockets show whether I have been actively engaged in the practice and the character of cases, I have had and the degree of success I have met with in my practice, in this way you may know the ability of every candidate for this office as their practice and the actual experience they have had becomes a matter of record.

The responsibilities of the office are such as to demand a lawyer well learned in the law with actual experience in the practice.

Our county is now many thousand dollars in debt, in fact we have a bonded indebtedness of $22,000.00, besides a floating indebtedness of several thousand dollars.

Every appropriation made and every dollar spent by our county is paid on the advice of the county attorney, who by law is made the legal adviser of every county officer; hence it is important to you from a financial standpoint, that your county attorney be experienced and learned in his profession.

In announcing my self as a candidate for this office, I believe it my duty to state as far as possible what my course shall be if elected, and I now promise, that if I am nominated and elected to this office, that I will at all times be present when the Fiscal Court is in session, to advise the Magistrates upon any questions that may come before them.

I will stand for a strict enforcement of the penal laws of our state, but in doing this it will be my pleasure as well as my duty, to see that every man charged with any offense is given a fair trial and a square deal.

As voters, you owe no man anything, but should select candidates because of their qualifications, and I only ask your support if you believe me as well or better qualified to protect your interests than any other candidate for the office.

qualifies me for the duties of the office of County Attorney. A man who has been elected and endorsed by the people of this district to make laws by which they are to be governed, evidently is equipped and qualified to explain such laws in the courts of this Commonwealth.

I regret very much to say that I cannot make a very close canvass of the county at this time. I cannot do this for two reasons first because I am very busy on the farm in making and taking care of farm products, second because I was assured by the people generally that I would have no opposition, but on the eleventh hour a second petition for the office of County Attorney was filed in the Republican Primary.

As legal adviser of the Fiscal Court of their county I will if nominated and elected, be cautious in advising it concerning the expenditures of the hard earned money of the tax payers.

For the past few years this county has been plunging in debt several hundred dollars annually. This indebtedness will have to be paid by the tax payers of Crittenden County. This county should not be in debt, nor would it have been in debt had the County Attorneys properly discharged their duties concerning the county's appropriations and expenditures.

If nominated and elected I will do as I have always endeavored to do, give my entire time in performing the duties of this office and guarding the interest of the people as their attorney. I will be found in my office on every official day in the year rendering justice to every person.

I will diligently investigate and procure indictments against alleged violations of the law without favor.

I respectfully solicit the support of every Republican voter and promise, if elected, a cautious and efficient handling of the County Attorneys affairs.

five, and made them as good as new; nearly all houses have been furnished with the best of desks, blackboards and charts; have dug or drilled twenty wells; all necessary out-buildings and other equipment that go to make the school home of the child comfortable and sanitary has been looked after. It is my belief that every child should have as comfortable home as can be had. The school house is his home for a good part of the year. Make it as pleasant, comfortable and as beautiful as possible. It adds greatly to character-building—the kind that makes good citizenship. The school house is no longer to be looked upon as a mere out-of-way shack where loafers, dead-beats and tramps may find a safe retreat, but is becoming a meeting house for the community where any and all questions of community interest may be discussed. Help me to make the country school house take its proper place in community organization and fulfill perfectly the mission for which it is so well adapted.

A few years ago we had no teachers who had made any special preparation for teaching. Last year there were 53 teachers at work in the county who had special training for teaching, either at the State Normal or other special schools for teachers. Our statutes make it a crime for physicians to practice medicine unless they have had special training. Our churches demand special preparation upon the part of the minister of the Gospel before he attempts to serve as pastor. Business concerns demand special training on the part of assistants in their employ. We, as patrons and citizens, must demand specially trained teachers for our children. The Crittenden county teachers see and realize this and are fast rallying to the call. There have been many inducements held out to the teacher who has made special preparation for his work. I have been persistent in my solicitations with the younger teachers to attend the State Normal, and make this special preparation rightly expected of them. I believe it has been through my influence that many have attended this institution, thus benefiting themselves as well as the children of the county. The old "third class certificate" has passed off the stage of action. There were only eleven second class certificates in the county last year. A few years more and the second class certificate will pass into oblivion. The child in the small district is entitled to as good teacher as the one in the large one, and teachers should be teachers without gradation.

In the county last year we had one hundred and fifty-two of our boys and girls graduate from the common branches. This year 120. Twenty or thirty used to be a respectable number. I attribute this great increase over the old system to better teachers, more supervision and better organization. Our schools all begin their work on the same day, which is a wonder to many county superintendents over the State. We follow faithfully the State Course of Study and a Crittenden county Daily Program. Until the past year I have had printed and in the hands of the teacher a list of examination questions covering the work of the month. This, too, has done great service for the schools, but not practiced by many of the county superintendents in the State. It takes time, work and money to do it. We did not have the questions last year because during the first two months of school the office work was more than common, together with other school work, and I had no help. This year the regular monthly examinations will begin with the first month and continue through the entire term. In every undertaking there should be an object in view—an end to be attained. Graduation means this. We will never have it without organization and co-operation. Seven years ago there were enrolled in the High school four pupils from the rural districts as County High School students, with an average attendance of one and a half for the term. The enrollment has grown from four to forty-five this year with an average attendance of nearly forty. The Marion High school had the largest graduating class this year of any in its history. One third of this class was made up of boys and girls from the rural districts as County High School pupils. These boys and girls have, all but one, gone out into their rural schools to teach this year. We believe a better educated citizenship makes a stronger and better community in which to live. Why not push the cause?

Seven years ago I found the schools in the county, about sixty individual, independent units each one trying (or not trying) to work out its problem alone and without the strength that comes from union. Today you will find them working together. The serious problem of one school is the work of the entire county. We have learned to pull together. The trustee was a "happen so." Today he is as important a factor in the school system as any other individual. He is no longer an insignificant figurehead, but comes and takes his place in the institutes, teachers' associations, school fairs and other branches of the school work. Seven years ago Crittenden county was not on the map at all when you looked for her on the records of District and State Associations. Now, you will find the names of all the best teachers enrolled in the K. E. A., F. D. E. A., and other associations. Crittenden has held the banner for attendance from the First District at the K. E. A., for the last three years. I should like to see it hang here in this office for, at least, four more years. This is the sign that fifty-three of our teachers associated for four days with some of the best educators of the land, in and out of the State. I never saw a "Trustees' Day" until in the year of 1912. That year we had thirty-nine trustees in an association during the Institute. It has grown from that day till this. Last year we had sixty-one of the sixty-two in the county, present at this association. This year, on Thursday, July 26th, we expect to see the entire sixty-two. It means team work, co-operation, union; and union means strength. Let's keep it up. Teachers' associations in Crittenden county was once a meaningless phrase. Now, it has grown until, last year, the attendance at the four Division associations and the County association reached 95 per cent. Who, in Crittenden county, had ever heard of a school fair until within the last few years? The Declamatory contests and various other school entertainments have served to intensify school interests until every individual in the county at least, knows there is something doing somewhere. Almost every school in the county has a good library of its own. This year there was about $400.00 collected and spent in the various schools for libraries, or to beautify or improve school rooms. It takes co-operation of forces to do these things. Forces must have a director—a leader. I feel like there has been no other County Superintendent in the State who has had more co-operative work than I have. I have lost none of my zeal, earnestness nor enthusiasm. I can do it again.

Our schools are not teaching all of what they should. We should teach the child in terms of the life we expect him to live. For all time our schools have been teaching the boy and the girl away from home. Our incentives have all been leading toward the professional life. Not one sentence has been toward country home-making. The farm life has been neglected, ignored, disdained. I want a re-direction of the Course of Study until every child, besides his literary course, will get something from the schools of his immediate community that will make him a better farmer and a happier and better citizen. The girls to become more efficient in making happier homes. I want to see two or three more good High Schools in the county where we may have short courses in scientific farming, manual training, home economics and domestic science, where the child, if he has only six months or one year to attend a High school of any kind will be able to get something that he can take home with him and use in making living easier and fuller. With our Joint City and County High School which is now on foot and two or three consolidated rural schools we will be able to reap from our schools all the benefits that are possible in the public school system of the State. I have the plans in my head. I have the "grit" to push the work, and, with your willing co-operation, will be able, within the next three or four years, to see our Crittenden county children receiving the benefits of a liberal education and sharing equally with the other children of the State. Will you help me.

Yours very truly,
E. JEFFREY TRAVIS.

the republican nomination for the office of County Attorney.

For several months I have been urged by republicans from every section of the county to make this race, but have hesitated to do so, for the reason that my time is so occupied that it will be impossible for me to make a canvass of the county in order to secure the nomination.

In fact the salary of the office does not justify a person qualified to fill it, in making two canvasses of the county in order to secure the office. But if I was so situated that I could make a close canvass of the county, it would be a pleasure to me to see and talk to every republican in the county and discuss with them the duties of the county attorney. But this is impossible, as I have a crop of corn, tobacco and hay that must have my attention for the next two or three weeks and this renders it impossible for me to solicit personally the votes of the people; my name will appear upon the republican ballot in the primary election as a candidate for this office and if I am given the nomination I will make every honorable effort within my power to win in the final election.

In soliciting your vote in this matter, I refer you to my record as a practicing lawyer for the past 22 years; during all these years you have been in and around our courts and know the extent and success of my practice. Our court dockets show whether I have been actively engaged in the practice and the character of cases, I have had and the degree of success I have met with in my practice, in this way you may know the ability of every candidate for this office as their practice and the actual experience they have had becomes a matter of record.

The responsibilities of the office are such as to demand a lawyer well learned in the law and with actual experience in the practice.

Our county is now many thousand dollars in debt, in fact we have a bonded indebtedness of $22,000.00, besides a floating indebtedness of several thousand dollars.

DEATHS

Genuine sorrow was felt over the entire county late Saturday afternoon when it was learned that Rev. Royster, that noble man of God who has always been such a faithful worker in the field of the master, was dead. Rev. Royster, assisted by Rev. Crow was engaged in a revival meeting at Siloam. He had not been well for several days but was able to be about his work and as he was a man who bore his ailments uncomplainingly, his condition was not regarded serious until just a short time before his death.

As it was not learned how serious he was until just a short time before his death. As soon as it was learned how serious his condition really was, medical assistance was summoned but before the doctor arrived, he was dead.

He was at the home of Mr. T. E. Griffith, near Siloam when he took ill and everything that human hands could do to relieve his sufferings was done by the good family of Mr. Griffith, but the battle almost from the first seemed an uneven one, and the grim reaper death was victorious.

For the last two or three years his wife had been visiting her mother, who lives at Henderson, during the meeting at Siloam. This year however she insisted that she remain at home to be with him as he had not been well for some time. Bro. Royster urged her to go though and reluctantly she consented. As soon as it was learned that his condition was serious, a message was sent to Mrs. Royster; following that message, a few moments afterward was sent the sad news that he was dead. They had only been married a few years, but those years had been for them years of happiness, because self-dom was such sincere devotion between man and wife as was with them. Besides his wife, Rev. Royster is survived by one brother, who lives at Corydon, Ky.

Rev. Royster had been for 3 years pastor of the Tolu circuit and during all those 3 years of active ministry for the King of glory his life was an example of Christian purity and of Christ like holiness and love. He not only had the power to make friends but the power to make them think more seriously of life and to have a desire to know more of the Man, whose life he was emulating as few men do.

A short funeral service was held at the home of Mr. T. E. Griffith Sunday morning by Bro. Crow in the presence of a large concourse of friends. The remains were then taken to his home near Corydon where the funeral was held Monday, the services being lead by his presiding elder, Rev. E. F. Goodson

We are now in the midst of a great meeting preaching to large crowds, our tabernacle has a seating capacity of 900 and at the evening service it is filled to overflowing 52 conversions to date. The pastor brother Longston has made necessary and needful preparation. He is certainly one of our best hustlers. The music is equal to the best. A choir of 40 voices under the leadership of brother Jones, we close here the 15th., then go to Bowling Green, Ky.

FOOD AND WAR

Shortage in Raw Materials Gives Rise to Alarm Among Manufacturing Interests—America Must Apply Every Resource to Meet World's Demand for Food—Labor Saving Machines and Man Power on the Farms Vital Factors in Economic Crisis—Appeal for Government Action.

Government action ensuring the farmers of America ample supplies of farm implements and competent farm labor is virtually necessary to this country's future participation in the war, declare the manufacturers of farming tools and machinery in the United States. This action must be immediate and radical, they say, or in 1918 the United States will fail to produce foodstuffs necessary to feed the civil population of our allies and to keep the allied armies in fighting trim.

This declaration is made in a public statement by the National Implement and Vehicle Association, whose members manufacture most of the farming implements used in and exported from the United States. It is the Association's answer to an anxious inquiry about reports of a prospective implement shortage addressed to it in behalf of the country's farming interests by ex-Governor W. D. Hoard of Wisconsin, one of the leaders of American agriculture and publisher of Hoard's Dairyman. The statement, which is signed by Charles S. Brantingham, Chairman of the Association's Executive Committee, says:

Unless prompt action is taken by the Government, our country will make the same mistakes that have resulted in compelling our allies to appeal to us to save them from famine. Unless we protect the production of labor-saving farm machinery and the supply of skilled farm labor we, too, must soon face a shrinkage of food supplies.

Without such action as is here suggested and urged, the farmers of the United States will not have enough machines or men in 1918 to meet the demands upon them.

"We are now confronted by shortages of raw material and factory labor that will begin to be manifest in shortages of certain lines of farm machinery this fall and will result in serious shortages in many vital lines next year. Stocks on hand in important kinds of tools and machines are smaller than in normal years, because of earlier scarcity of factory labor and a rapidly tightening scarcity of all raw materials.

"Farmers have deferred during the last three years the replacing of old and badly worn tools and machines. Now, confronted by the practical certainty that the war is to continue indefinitely, with attendant assurance of a heavy demand and high prices for all their products, and by an inevitable shortage of farm labor, they cannot put off longer replacements of worn out machines and the additions to equipment necessary to increase acreage and production.

"It is also essential in meeting the demand of the farmers for implements that there shall be preference in transportation for raw materials to the factories and for finished goods from the factories to the farms.

"For the last ten years farm labor has been more and more difficult to secure, and now with an enormous increase in the demand for labor in munitions factories, and the withdrawal of many young men from productive occupations, there is bound to be a shortage of farm labor such as this country has never known. In Kansas alone a vast number of fertile acres on which the wheat crop failed will lie idle this summer, chiefly for lack of labor and partly through lack of machines to replant to corn.

"We regard it as vital to keep on the farms the men now there who know the business, especially the men trained in the use of labor-saving machinery. It would be wasteful and foolish to let them go and afterward try to replace them with unskilled men.

"We seek no advantage for our industry over any other, but we realize and we want the public to realize that without this product and without sufficient labor the farmers of the United States cannot increase or even maintain their production of foodstuffs next year. To avert the calamity that such a condition will surely produce, our industry and the farming industry which it chiefly supports must be put upon the same preferred basis as the making of war munitions, even if other less vital industries suffer thereby for materials and men.

"These are the measures that we declare to be vital to the feeding of this nation and its allies next year:

"1. That the manufacture of farm materials be given equal preference with the manufacture of war munitions as regards supplies of necessary raw materials.

"2. That service to the country in farm machinery factories be considered of equal importance with service in munition making plants, Government or private.

"3. That labor on the farms be considered as of equal importance with the production of war munitions.

"4. That the raw materials for farming machinery and the finished goods be given equal preference by the transportation agencies of the country with munitions of war.

"These measures must be taken immediately to be effective, because the use and demand for farming machinery are seasonal. We must have right now materials and the men to make the farm machinery that the farmer at home and abroad must use this fall and next spring. Delay in action will be as disastrous as failure to act at all."
